(L14 P3-4)

- Esther as queen was enjoying her life in the palace that time a verdict for mass execution of the Jews had been conveyed throughout the kingdom by the King. Mordecai expressed his grief and sorrow at this edict by wearing sack cloth and ashes and wailing bitterly on the streets. When Esther found out about his situation, she sent clothes to him to wear but he refused to accept the clothes. Instead Mordecai sent Esther the edict that Haman promised to pay the King in return for issuing the edict of mass execution of Jews. Mordecai requested Esther to go and plead the King to remove the edict.
 - Esther in turn refused to go to Kings Court as no one is allowed to enter the court without an invitation. She was trying to avoid facing the King because she didn’t want him to know that she was a Jew. She also feared the law of being put to death for entering the King’s courts.
 - Mordecai reminded Esther that she should not hide under the protection of the palace and escape the edict. If she hadn’t stepped up, God would have delivered his people through other means and she along with her Father’s household may not have survived this edict. Esther realized the greater cause of being placed in the palace as Queen at this time for the entire Jewish community and she decided to meet the King and plead for mercy for the Jews.
 - Queen Esther prepares to sacrifice her life for the sake of the Jews and God gives her victory over evil as the King is impressed by her and hears her plea.
2. Explain the spiritual transformation that took place in Saul’s life. Your essay should include:
 - a. Describe the stoning of Stephen and the rise of Saul (5 pts)
 - b. Explain God’s plan for Saul (5 pts)
 - c. Explain the difference between being religious versus knowing God (5 pts)

- a. Saul was a zealous Pharisee. He was a strong follower of Judaism and believed initially that the gospel of Jesus was a major deception. Therefore he went around persecuting the Christians and throwing men and women into prison. Stephen was a follower of Christ. He gave his testimony but Stephen was stoned for his faith. Saul was there giving approval to his death.

- b. However, God had a plan to use Saul to serve the kingdom of God. Saul was on his way to Damascus when he saw a bright light. A voice spoke out and said “Saul, Saul why are you persecuting me.” Saul realized at that the moment he was persecuting the very same God that he was zealously concerned about. Saul spent three days in prayer. It was a very important moment in Saul’s life. It shows how much God is willing to use people for his glory even if they are the same people that are bringing so much pain to his people. God knew that Saul was misdirected and was truly searching and trying to protect what Saul was the truth. God knew this zeal would be tremendously beneficial for the growth of the kingdom of God.
- c. The difference between being religious and knowing God is that being religious means that someone is more concerned about following the rules prescribed by that religion. Being religious doesn’t require any effort to know about God. Knowing God means that one is focused on learning about what God wants for their life and doing what it takes to continue to know God more. God took Saul from being just religious to someone who made it the sole purpose in life to know Jesus Christ more and more each day.
